Profile

Driven psychology graduate with expertise in support, research, and mental health advocacy. Passionate about community engagement, I am pursuing Joint Masters in psychology (Global Minds) funded by the European Commission. I have led therapeutic interventions, workshops, and awareness initiatives to create meaningful change. Skilled in content writing, intercultural communication, and project management, I am helping in Alternative to Violence initiatives in Limerick. I am native Urdu and Punjabi speaker and speak fluent English, actively seeking impactful roles in mental health promotion, catering individual needs and provide support.
